

Offering support to families of children with special needs.

Helping parents make the best health care decisions for their children.

Assisting parents to find medical care for their children with special health care needs.

What services does CSNP provide?

For All Children

Information & referral to community resources:

- Health services/medical home
- Vision and hearing screening
- Physical/occupational/speech therapy
- Financial
- Parent support groups
- Early Education programs
- Transition from pediatric to adult

For Children Birth to Three-

Health and Development Information

- Feeding & nutrition
- Growth & development
- Immunizations
- Infant cues – communication
- Routine & special needs
- Infant & child care
- Happiest Baby on the Block!

Professional Nursing Consultation

- Monitor development
- Explain infant's special health care needs and treatment options
- Assist with decision making
- Neonatal Intensive Care Unit graduates receive priority

Who Qualifies?

You must...

Reside in Boulder County.

Have a child with special health care needs.

CSNP strives to meet the special health care needs of infants and children in Boulder County.

Please call to find out more!

(303) 678-6064

www.bouldercountyhealth.org/health/famhlth/csn.htm

What is CSNP?

All families have questions about their children's health and development.

Families raising children who had difficult births may have additional health and development questions about their children.

These families deserve extra support and information.

That's where the Children with Special Needs Program (CSNP) can help!

Contact Information
(303) 678-6064

Children with Special Needs Program
Boulder County Public Health
529 Coffman Street Suite 200
Longmont, CO 80501

CSNP

Children with Special Needs Program

A Boulder County
Public Health Program