

Mountain Pine Beetle

Establishing a Community Biomass Sort Yard Near the Town of Nederland

January 26, 2009 • 7:00-9:00 PM
Nederland Community Center

Meeting Goals:

- 1 To provide information about two proposed sites for a Community Biomass Sort Yard in the Nederland area.
- 2 To gather public feedback and comments about the pros and cons of each of the proposed sites.
- 3 To explain the public process involved in opening a Community Biomass Sort Yard and talk about the next steps.

Presentations and Discussions:

Opening Remarks and Welcome

Brief description about the need for Community Biomass Sort Yards

~ Brief Q&A

Presentation about previous sites we investigated, but aren't pursuing

~ Q&A

Presentation about the potential site on Ridge Road

~ Q&A

Presentation about the potential site on Reynolds Ranch Open Space

~ Q&A

Brainstorming session on the pros and cons of each proposed site and general questions

~ Community feedback is encouraged!

Explanation of the next steps...

~ Q&A

Meeting Sponsors:

Boulder County Land Use

Town of Nederland

Indian Peaks Forest

Boulder County Forest Health • Promoting Forest Sustainability Through Education & Public Outreach
Contact: Ryan Ludlow, Forestry Education & Outreach Coordinator • Email: PineBeetle@bouldercounty.org