

You are invited to a RIDE-THROUGH RIBBON CUTTING

Come celebrate the opening of a vital link of the Rock Creek Trail!

The Boulder County Commissioners invite local cyclists and recreationalists to participate in the unveiling of a section of the Rock Creek Trail that links together a nearly 6-mile stretch of path from Lafayette, through county open space, and into Broomfield.

Commissioners Ben Pearlman, Cindy Domenico and Will Toor will cycle along the path and cut a ribbon to officially open the .75-mile trail link, which includes two bridges and a tunnel under U.S. 287 south of Dillon Road. The Rock Creek Trail – open to pedestrians, cyclists and equestrians – is now continuous from 120th Street in Lafayette, through Rock Creek Farm, past Stearns Lake, and up to Brainard Drive in Broomfield.

What: Ribbon cutting ceremony to open a section of the Rock Creek Trail that links Lafayette, Boulder County open space, and Broomfield.

When: Monday, Oct. 5
11:30 a.m.

Where: Rock Creek Trail
Southeast of U.S. 287 and Dillon Road
Lafayette, Colo.

Parking: Two parking areas are available on the shoulders of Dillon Road, east of U.S. 287

Directions: From the intersection of U.S. 287 and Dillon Road
Head east on Dillon Road approximately 500 feet
Bear right at fork in road
Look for parking areas on both sides of road

Contact: Dan Rowland
303-441-3399
drowland@bouldercounty.org

More information about Boulder County regional trails is available at www.BoulderCounty.org/Transportation.